

WE ARE HIRING!

ECOLOGICAL AMBASSADOR

Greet visitors at the newly created Amphitrite House Interpretive Center and share your passion and knowledge of the ecology and history of our region.

Details:

- A full time, year round position.
- A frontline position focused on visitor engagement and natural history interpretation.
- Starting wage $21 an hour, but commensurate with experience and qualifications.

Valuable Attributes:

- Are you nature nerd? A history buff? Do you get excited about sharing your knowledge and excitement with others?
- Sales experience a plus.
- A successful applicant will have a solid background in general ecology and local history, but more importantly a passion to learn more!

Applications will be considered as they are received.
