science education, community engagement, flexibility, outdoor learning, working with children, collaboration, creative lesson planning

Hours: 37.5 hours per week, typically Monday to Friday (with some weekends required)

Salary: Starting wage: $45,000, commensurate with certifications and experience.

The RES is seeking a passionate, adaptable individual who enjoys professional flexibility and working with children to run our Field School Programs in Tofino &/or Ucluelet. This role combines education and a keen understanding of the natural world and seeks someone who is enthusiastic about both.

Raincoast Field School is an outdoor education program designed to supplement BC curricular outcomes while providing hands-on learning opportunities for students in our local elementary schools. It is a collaborative program developed by the RES and the teachers at the local schools.

The ideal candidate will have:

- A post-secondary degree in biological sciences and/or education.
- Previous teaching or interpretation experience.
- Experience developing educational programs.
- Knowledge of west coast ecosystems, local history, and local culture.
- Experience working with and collaborating with First Nation communities.
- Experience working outdoors for extended periods of time.
- Experience in risk management and implementing safety protocols.
- Confident working independently, who can manage their time effectively, and collaborate with the rest of team.

Certifications:

- Standard first aid certification
- Wilderness First Aid/ Remote First Aid certification, or willingness to obtain certification.
- Class 4 Driver's License, or willingness to obtain Class 4 license.
- Guiding certificates (such as kayaking or life-saving skills) are an asset.

How to apply: If you are interested in applying, please submit a cover letter, resume, and references in one file to Mark Maftai, Executive Director at mark@raincoasteducation.org with "FIELD SCHOOL: your full name" in the subject heading.

Application Deadline: Upon fitting candidate

Start Date: Upon hire
